

Glen Ellyn - CBD Streetscaping and Utility Improvements Project - Phase 2 Schedule Projection

SCHEDULE AS OF AUGUST 1, 2023. SUBJECT TO CHANGE

	July				August				September				October				November				December
Pennsylvania Ave (North Side)
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion
Pennsylvania Ave (South Side)
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion
Main St (North Block)
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion
Main St (South Block)
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion
Main St (at RR Tracks)
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion
Crescent Blvd											By the current projection, only the underground utilities and temporary paving are anticipated to occur for Crescent Boulevard and the small stretch of Main St adjacent to the RR tracks in 2023. This may change, but under this projected scenario, the streetscaping work will occur in 2024 with the remainder of Crescent Boulevard between Main St and Prospect Ave.
Underground Utility Work
Roadway Reconstruction
Furniture Zone Underground
Sidewalk (storefront side)
Furniture Zone Completion

By the current projection, only the underground utilities and temporary paving are anticipated to occur for Crescent Boulevard and the small stretch of Main St adjacent to the RR tracks in 2023. This may change, but under this projected scenario, the streetscaping work will occur in 2024 with the remainder of Crescent Boulevard between Main St and Prospect Ave.

Glen Ellyn CBD Streetscaping and Utility Improvements Project – Phase 2 Roadway Segments Map (2023)

Glen Ellyn CBD Streetscaping and Utility Improvements Project – General Stages of Construction

